*ROWLAND HALL-
ST. MARK'S SCHOOL
843 LINCOLN STREET
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH 84102*

JEFF GADETTE

The 1994 Hallmark staff is pleased to dedicate this yearbook to a teacher whose wonderful teaching and great personality have made him a truly deserving recipient of this distinction.

Mr. Gadette received his B.A. from the University of Utah and joined the Rowland Hall-St. Mark's community in 1980 as a math teacher. He left to get his M.B.A. at the University of Utah and worked shortly for Merrill Lynch. Deciding he liked teaching better, he returned to the lower school, teaching sixth grade, and eventually moved back to the upper school.

In addition to his teaching skills, Mr. Gadette plays guitar in a couple of bands, the most well-known being Mocha Joe.

Mr. Gadette's many talents and devotion to education have made him a favorite teacher of many, so it is with great pride and gratitude that we honor him in the 1994 Hallmark.

Women's Tennis

WOMEN'S TENNIS

With all but one of last year's varsity players graduating, this was expected to be a rebuilding year for the RHSM girls' tennis. But with senior Jenny Williams leading the way, the team finished the season as state runner-up, a notch higher than last year's third-place finish. Following Williams in the lineup were the much-improved sophomore Kristina Reeder at 2nd singles and junior Sage Lazar, who played steadily in the 3rd singles position all season. At 1st doubles were two more up-and-coming tenth graders, Kendall Sumner and Hilory Amoss, followed by juniors Geeta Shah and Nicole Caswell at 2nd doubles. Also coming out faithfully to practice and support the team were junior varsity players Yasamin Hosseini, Tracy Gibbons, Yulee Choe, and Beth Nuzzo, who joined the team mid-season. Congratulations to Coach Rich Francey and assistant coaches Keller Higbee and Joanie Reeder for another successful season.

Women's Volleyball

This year brought together the best group of talent the Rowland Hall volleyball program has seen. A combination of strong returning players and skilled younger players lead the 1993 volleyball team through the strongest overall season it has ever had. With a second place finish in both division and region and sixth place in state RHSM established itself as a powerful team among its competition.

The proud coaches were Laurie Carpenter, head coach; Kendra Tomsic, assistant coach; Kathy Howa, freshman/sophomore coach. The Varsity team consisted of senior captains Anne Leppert and Angie Migliaccio; seniors Sally Mason and Christy Meade; junior Alli Miller; and sophomores Alex Folias, Megan Williams, and Carrie Littlefield. On the JV and freshman/sophomore teams were Emily Barrett, Shannon Burke, Annie Chamberlain, Therese Erick, Kristen Hilger, Sarah Hogle, Jaime Ipson, Whitney Landa, Carrie Littlefield, Vanessa Lowe, Alison Manka, Alisa Methner, Maggie Moore, Lauren Stevens and Kelly Tuohig.

Cross Country

CROSS COUNTRY

The cross country team had its most successful season ever this year. The largest team in the school's history managed to turn out a girls' team that won both regional and state meets.

The team consisted of captain Jeanette Carpenter, Emily Wood, Elyse Vaccaro, Alliette Frank, Jenny Wood, Clover Sanders, Elie Culp, Lizzie Connelly, Tracy Manaster, Anami Sheppard, Anna Snipes, and Sarah Ranger.

The boys' team also had a very exciting season. It beat the infamous St. Joe at a thrilling Dugway meet and did very well in both regionals and state. The runners were captains Nate Taylor and Nate Thomas, Josh Taylor, Dylan Brunjes, Ian Cane, Myles Tenbroeck, Mathieu Shronz, Justin Brunjes, Andy Hatch, Shanti Sheppard, and Mike Monroe.

Men's Baseball

This year the baseball team had an outstanding season. They finished first in region fourteen, and second in the state for 1A division schools. The team was undefeated in the regular season, and finished the season with a final record of 13-1. This is the first baseball team in RHMS's history to have been undefeated in the regular season and to have made it to the state finals. The players on the varsity include: Chris Alexis, Elliot Anderson, Bernard Bendinger, Michael Billings, Andy Carey, Tyler Dennis, Luke Flockerzi, Andrew Gelman, Howard Horn, Jonathan Judge, Mark Langheinrich, Brady Rasmussen, Douglas Reid, Cody Skarning, Ryland Sumner, and Mohammed Hall. The junior varsity players include: Jaimeson Agraz, Anthony Ashton, Doug Jensen, Mark Long, Nate Vinton, Chris VonMack, and Ted Nanka.

Assistant coaches Janice Rossi and John Ethan (above) keep a watchful eye on the slopes, while director and head coach Olle Larsson (right) checks on the ski swap.

ROWMARK

Rowmark Ski Academy had yet another successful season under the direction of Olle Larsson and assistants John Ethan, Janice Rossi, Heidi Hager, and Scott Putnam. Racers this year were Mike Baetz, Hanako Bannai, Nanako Bannai, Bernard Bendinger, Oliver Fritsch, Brandon Garcia, Sarah Grossman, Sten Hoidal, Ali Kaminer, Jesse Keene, Amanda Kobler, John Miller, Eric Oehlerich, Heather Olson, Mike Pligavko, Whitney Reed, Ashley Rothwell, Joshua Sadaj, Alex Shaffer, Peter Shaffer, Brady Sherman, Brittne Stone, Jeremy Stone, and Eric Turney. Rowmarkers continued to finish strongly in USSA events during the season.

Women's Basketball

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The 1993-94 Women's Basketball team had an excellent season with a second place finish in both division and region. This year's team used a balanced scoring attack and strong defense to earn a 13-4 regular season record, under the direction of head coach Lori Dall and assistant coaches Wendi Warhurst and Susanna Tauteoli. The Varsity team consisted of seniors Anne Leppert and Christy Meade; juniors Annie Chamberlain and Alli Miller; sophomores Hilary Amoss, Alex Folias, Carrie Littlefield, Kendall Sumner, and Megan Williams; and freshman Sarah Hogle. The Junior Varsity and Freshman teams consisted of sophomores Alisa Methner, Kristina Reeder, and Kelly Tuohig and freshmen Emily Barrett, Ellie Culp, Kristin Hilger, and Clover Sanders.

Men's Basketball

MEN'S BASKETBALL

This year the men's basketball had an outstanding season, finishing 16-2 overall (5-2 in post-season play) and second in the state tournament. The powering varsity (top) consisted of seniors Ali Akhavan, Adrian Larson, Ryland Sumner, Brian Methner, David Crandall, Richard Chang, Brady Rasmussen, Marty Ashton, and Andrew Howell; juniors Willy Felton, Chris Alexis, Howard Horn, Trevor Miller, and Mike Landesman; and freshman Mike Billings. The JV (left, with freshman-sophomore team) consisted of juniors Brandon Motoki, Russell Mallinkrodt, and Adam Goldstein; and freshmen Luke Flockerzi, Eric Alder, Matt Tribe, Cody Scarning, and Mark Langheinrich. The freshman-sophomore team was manned by freshmen Doug Reid, Jeff Armington, Chris Maack, Tony Ashton, and Doug Jenson; sophomore Mohammed Hall; and junior Shashank Virkar.

Yearbook

YEARBOOK

The yearbook staff spent a year of transition as design and production were shifted to computers—a long way from the days of copyfitting and typesetting. Editors Libby Ramsey and Geeta Shah provided continuity and leadership; advisor Richard Howe grabbed anyone he could (including, among many others, Bram Dolcourt, Frank Langheinrich, Ruth Sturges, Dave Hall, Marge Coombs, Becky Reimer, and Lori Dall) to take photographs. The staff included Audrey Beck, Kendall Sumner, Jenny Wood, Angie Migliaccio, Christy Meade, Rich Chang, Mary Sarver, Jeremy Wechsler, Geoff Swindle, Nicole Caswell, Jason OwYoung, Andy Carey, and Annabel Gabb.

Student Council

Avid, working?

"Ohh, my. . . . Gosh!"

Excuse me!?

Good job, guys!

"My name is George, and I want a g-string." With these immortal words new Student Council Advisor George Henry set the tone for an exciting, productive, and memorable year. Morning meetings were bigger and better than ever, dance attendance soared, and school spirit reached new heights. Student body officers for 1993-94 included: President Ryland Sumner, Vice-President Alex Ashton, Treasurer Brady Rasmussen, Secretary Matt Allred, Publicity Director Avid Amiri, and Historian Ali Akhavan. They were assisted by the class officers: seniors Jonathan Pappasideris and Hadley Rampton, President and Vice-President respectively; juniors Larissa Jester and Bob Lonergon; sophomores Hilary Amoss and Kristina Reeder; and freshmen Clover Sanders, Mark Langheingich, and Tony Ashton. Prefects Adrian Larson, Anne Leppert, David Reeder, Jason Tunderman, and Morning Meeting Committee Chairman Elliot Anderson rounded out the finest student council in the history of Rowland Hall-St. Mark's.

"I have your file in here somewhere . . ."

"Uh . . . huh?"

"Sure, I'm sure!"

DEBATE

This year the RHSM debate team was the biggest in school history, with fifty-four members representing all four classes. A new and enthusiastic batch of freshmen were helped along by seventeen returning seniors and nine returning juniors. Led by coach Frank Langheinrich and assistant coach Dennis Jolley, the debaters qualified to compete in the 3-A state championship and earned many trophies and awards throughout the season. Overall team captains were Jonathan Pappasideris and Alex Ashton, both veterans of the national championships. Other captains included Bram Dolcourt and Ben Kesner for policy, Sarah Francis for Lincoln-Douglas, David Cook and Emily Wood for individual events, and Avid Amiri for Congress.

Newspaper

"This two-point type is a headache!"

"So this is what it's like to be a reporter!"

"If we print this story we'll really be up a tree!"

NEWSPAPER

The RHSM Gazette had an outstanding year under the editorship of Sarah Patrick. A new format and improved production techniques raised the visual image of the paper, while reporting, writing, and editing were taken to stellar levels of quality. The "lean but mean" staff consisted of Jeb Axland, Juan Pedro Barrero, David Crandall, Jessica Dahlin, Yasamin Hosseini, Tom Lombardi, Beth Nuzzo, and Sarah Stolebarger. Advisor Richard Howe provided help as needed. Much appreciated were the many student, staff, and faculty "stringers" who contributed their writing and photographs.

Mosaic

MOSAIC

For the first two trimesters of each year, the staff of RHSM's award-winning literary magazine takes part in a creative writing class. During the third trimester the Mosaic is designed and produced. Shelby Raebeck, the new creative writing teacher, had the class write one-act plays, poems, and short stories while studying the work of other authors. Students took field trips to local coffee houses, eavesdropping on unsuspecting patrons to learn how to write dialogue. The final trimester's publication of the Mosaic was supervised by another new teacher, Richard Howe. The staff consisted of freshmen Ellie Culp, Duffy Gallivan, Kristin Hilger, Anami Sheppard, and Anna Snipes; sophomore Andy Hatch; juniors Jeannette Carpenter, Sarah Francis, and Nate Thomas; and seniors Jon Bone, Dylan Brunjes, Andrew Howell, Genny Jacobsen, Kris Hammond, Peter Spruance, and Jenny Williams. With a diverse staff and two exceptional new advisors, this year's Mosaic will undoubtedly be a success.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

This year the RHSM chapter of the National Honor Society continued old traditions and also began some new ones. The NHS is comprised of academic and extracurricularly-talented juniors and seniors who, throughout the year, use these talents to give back to the RHSM and larger communities. In-school tutoring has continued this year with the coordinating help of academic support counselor Bruce Adams, middle school teacher Becky Reimer, and last, but not least, the NHS advisor, Tony Larimer. As part of the service program this year the NHS began cooking and serving food at a Salt Lake area Soup kitchen. In all, the NHS enjoyed a successful year. Members included Alex Ashton, Audrey Beck, Jeanette Carpenter, Richard Chang, David Cook, Andrew Gelman, Larissa Jester, Jonathan Judge, Ben Kesner, Amanda Kobler, Sage Lazar, Anne Leppert, Bob Lonergan, Vanessa Lowe, Sam McConnell, Christy Meade, Jason OwYoung, Sarah Patrick, Hadley Rampton, Libby Ramsey, Geeta Shah, Nathan Taylor, Jason Tundermann, Jenny Williams, and Emily Wood.

German Club

French Club

Latin Club

The NJCL (National Junior Classical League) is a national organization for the students of Latin and Greek. The RHSM chapter is the oldest in the state. For the last ten years our group has sponsored a lecture on the annual Greek Theatre Play by Dr. Jim Svendsen for all teachers and students in the Salt Lake Valley. They also participate in activities with other chapters in the state. Membership is open to all Latin students in the school, and this year's officers were: Adam Goldstein, consul; Ben Kesner, pro-consul; Tyler Dennis, quaestor; Tim Milliron, scribe; Tom Westphal, aedile; and Andrew Gelman, lanator.

Art Club

Community Service Council

COMMUNITY SERVICE COUNCIL

In its second year of activity, the Community Service Council has had a busy year, meeting regularly to plan and implement events for the school and community. RHSM students have volunteered their time with the Mayor's Youth Council on projects such as Toys for Tots. The council, sponsored by Chaplain Jonathan Voorhees, organizes a monthly feeding program at the Rescue Mission of Salt Lake City. Council members visited the AIDS quilt and the Lotus Project, a job training program for the homeless. The council plans chapel services at the upper school and meets regularly to brainstorm. Council officers are: Emily Michael, president; Emily Wood, vice president; Jaime Ipson, secretary; and Keith Nielsen, Yasamin Hosseini, and Andres Gelman, student directors of the homeless program.

Stage Production

STAGE PRODUCTION

Stage production this year was taught by Ray Carlson. The class required students to work on sound, lights, stage crew, and serve shifts as "the almighty stage manager." The class also prepared for surprise events—as, for example, an unexpected morning meeting called with little or no notice. First trimester students enjoyed the class, especially when they could explore the area above the Larimer Center ceiling when changing lights. Sten Hoidal often asked, "Can we change lights today?" and, when told he could, would whine like a small dog.

Dance Company

DANCE COMPANY

RHSM's dance company enjoyed another successful year under the artistic direction of Joan Kingston. Dancers performed at a variety of functions, including many school meetings, a University of Utah alumni banquet, an area-wide Christmas concert at Brighton High School in December, Human Rights Week, and the RHSM annual dance concert in February. Members of the company were: Neeta Bidwai, Marley Bramble, Megan Cassity, Tacy Conard, Anne Fleig, Sarah Francis, Larissa Jester, Katherine Marlowe, Helen Michael, Sarah Stolebarger, Kathleen Tundermann, Elyse Vaccaro, and Anna Weyher. Guest choreographers and guest dancers also worked with the company this year.

Adopt-a-Block

ADOPT-A-BLOCK

On September 18 volunteers from the RHSM student body helped in the second annual Adopt-a-Block project, which is sponsored by the community council. For one day students and faculty help neighbors of the school with yardwork and general cleanup. It's a chance to get to know the neighbors and the neighborhood, and to let them know more about the school and the people in it.

Shakespeare Play

SHAKESPEARE PLAY

For a change of pace the Shakespeare play was presented in the fall. Students performed Two Gentlemen of Verona. The gentlemen were played by Kris Hammond and Ciaran Connelly. Other cast members included: Macey Mott, Beth Davis, Leah Schallheim, Brittne Aspen-Stone, Tom Westphal, Anna Weyher, Jessica Probert, Antara Kanth, Tracy Manaster, and Tiffany Draughton. Macy Mott did hair and costume designs, Kerstin Forsythe was the assistant director, and Angela Russell-Gibbons directed.

Human Rights Day

HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

RHSM's fourth annual Human Rights Day was January 14. It began with lectures ranging from the gay and lesbian struggle to Black poetry. Both students and faculty members enjoyed the personal way topics were presented. This year's keynote speaker was Sylvester Monroe, a Time reporter who flew into Salt Lake City for this event. He gave a moving speech on the importance and benefits of diversity. Human Rights Day festivities were not confined to this one day, however. Writing, drawing, and poetry contests were sponsored by the Human Rights Day committee, and prizes were awarded for the best bumper stickers, posters, and political cartoons.

Senior and Junior Class Retreats

SENIOR AND JUNIOR CLASS RETREATS

This year the senior and junior class retreats were held in Ogden canyon. The scheduled events were soccer and basketball games between the two classes. Other activities included late night and early morning strolls through the other camps. Many students were caught breaking curfew, but they were not severely punished. Many students agreed that the semi-combined retreats were a wonderful bonding experience.

SOPHOMORE RETREAT

The sophomores headed for the hills during their class retreat this year. The whole class was shuttled up to beautiful Camp Tuttle in Big Cottonwood Canyon for a unique bonding experience. They participated in an activity known as the ropes course. This is a series of activities that are designed to build the sophomores' trust in one another. The class was broken into smaller groups of eight and spent the next day-and-a-half trusting and learning about each other. Everyone agreed that it was a success and everyone had fun learning and growing. There were friendships created during the retreat that would last the rest of the year.

This year the freshman class retreat was an incredible success. Bussed to the high Uintah Mountains, at elevations close to 10,000 feet, the freshmen participated in special projects for each of their school classes. Students were divided up into different groups, and each group went off to a different place. To top the five-day experience off, it snowed on the morning of the last day. A great time was had by all!

Middle School Construction

MIDDLE SCHOOL ADDITION CONSTRUCTION

Construction on a middle school wing of the Lincoln Street campus of RHSM began in June 1993 with a gala groundbreaking event. Students returning to school in the fall could see the foundation in progress, and walls and windows followed shortly thereafter. There was minimal disruption in the daily life of the existing school, except for the occasional distant murmur of isolated jackhammers. Walls, floors, and ceilings came with colder weather, and finishing work moved under cover. The building was scheduled for a May 1994 completion. It will house grades 6–8 and the middle school offices.

Middle School Men's Basketball

MIDDLE SCHOOL MEN'S BASKETBALL

It was a season of recruitment and building for the middle school men's basketball program under coaches Mark Etheridge and Shelby Raebeck. Mixed results in a fiercely competitive league were a little frustrating, and yet enthusiastic, committed performances by the players and support from fans resulted in an encouraging outlook for the future.

Middle School Men's Soccer

THE FUTURE PRIDE

Middle school men's soccer had an excellent year with a record of 7-1, taking first place in the league. The team consisted of Andrew Dalglish, Alex Meade, Ethan Lambert, Travis Otten, Evan Ruffinengo, Luke Muir, David Billings, Charlie Kimball, Patton Murray, Will Carter, Nicholas Burst, Chris Ernst, Brian Regan, Paul Roberts, Mike Stewart, Colin Motoki, Gavin Cain, Scott McCusker, Alex Poulos, Jeff Miller, Dustin Skaggs, John Amoss, Amir Akhavan, Chip Jarman, Will Springmeyer, Scott Sheltra, Austin Riter, John McIntosh, Justin Klein-Clark, Rhett Panos, Patrick Sullivan, James Allred, Sean McKay, Bjorn Ericksen, and Coach Billy McNicol.

Middle School Advisory Board

MIDDLE SCHOOL ADVISORY BOARD

This year, in an effort to increase student involvement in school government and social activities, middle school students elected advisory representatives on a quarterly basis. The representatives and their sponsors—Liz Paige and Leslie Stone—met together before each major middle school activity to brainstorm and form committees for further student involvement. The representatives were instrumental in the success of events ranging from the canned food drive and Oxfam luncheon to the Halloween and Christmas parties.

... A HASTY RETREAT

This year's middle school retreat was planned for Mountain Dell Park in Parley's Canyon. What had been a beautiful autumn week turned ugly on retreat day; advisors and faculty scrambled and suddenly the old gymnasium starting looking pretty good. Retreaters were treated to improving weather during the day, and actually got to see the out-of-doors.

Bravo Andrew

Dear Andrew,

You bring a special kind of pride -- in the kind of person you've always been and, as you've grown into the wonderful young man you've become.

You inspire confidence in the future -- not only because of your many talents, but even more, because you're so caring and so dedicated -- so willing to try to make a difference.

Your laughter and your individual way of looking at things brings a very special joy that can't be duplicated.

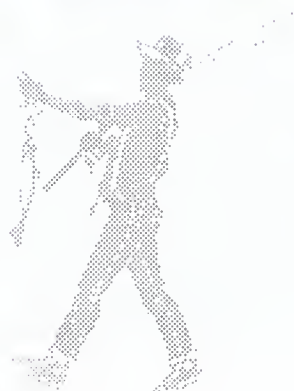

For all these things and so many more -- we hope you know how proud we are of you at this time . . . and, most of all, we want you to know how much you're loved.

All our love,

Mom, Dad, Margeo, Jim
Angie, Jammy and Papa

Before you ascend into the real world, we'd like to leave you with a few small words of wisdom.

- *Know all you know and be who you are.
- *Don't ever lose sight of your dreams and your goals, but don't be afraid to take the scenic route to reach them.
- *Remember that it takes both rain and sunshine to make a rainbow.
- *If you ever feel weak, resort to your inner strength. (You have a lot of it!)
- *And, most importantly, don't ever eat the rolls if you are ever in Mexico again!

YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY!

We all love you very much!
Congratulations and GOOD LUCK!!!

Love Always,
Ashes, Michael, Mom, and Dad
P.S. Ace, if things ever get too terrible to bear, give Fluffy and me a call and we'll be right over!

*Congratulations

Your grandparents are very proud of you, Jonathan. God bless you.
Yiayia and Papou

We always hoped we'd have a son, but we never dreamed he'd be as wonderful as you, Jonathan.

You are our pride and joy.

Love always,
Mom and Dad

CONGRATULATIONS, JONATHAN!

CONGRATULATIONS ADRIAN

If you are planning for a year, sow rice.
If you are planning for a decade, plant trees.
If you are planning for a lifetime, educate a person.

You are the light of my life, Adrian. I am very proud of you!

Love, Mom and Jarrod

The world is your oyster.

A MOST EXCELLENT ADVENTURE

The world awaits your expression.
Your talent and humility
Your grace and compassion
Your humor and understanding

We have already loved and enjoyed your gentleness and power for 17 wonderful trips around the sun.

Now it's time for the Mystery Machine to ramble on!

DeedleBee,

Your strength is your song.
Your smile, our joy.
Your sensitivity, the world's reward.

Go forward proudly into
Life's great adventure.
Trust yourself, the rope,
and the rock
And you will soar.

Always remember, if you get confused
Listen to the music play.
Better yet, play it yourself.

With all our love,
Heather and Justin

Peter,
Congratulations!
Love,

You've come a long way since your first harness . . .

Mary —

May your hands always be busy
May your feet always be swift
May you have a strong foundation
when the winds of changes shift
May your heart always be joyful
May your song always be sung
And may you stay forever young.
